Family Gathering

Thank you to everyone who came to the Family Gathering, I hope you thoroughly enjoyed it! Thank you also to those who came to our Year 6's Diner for a cream tea. They raised £140.00 which will pay for the bus to Flamingo Land for their leaver's trip.

Year 6 Football

The Year 6 Football Team competed in the Straws cup Tournament on Tuesday evening. They played exceptionally well and successfully won their group, to gain a place in the Straws Cup Final at the Turnball Ground last night. Unfortunately they lost the Final in a close contested match with Airy Hill. The boys can be commended on their attitude, determination and skill; they were a credit to the school.

World War 2 Day

We are having a war themed day for our Key Stage 2 children on Friday May 10th. Children can come dressed as an evacuee and Mrs Breckon will be cooking a special war themed menu for everyone to enjoy. Children who are not in Key Stage 2 are welcome to join in by dressed as an evacuee also.
